

December 2015

Merry Christmas!

The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel. (Isa 7:14)

We write this last newsletter of 2015 a week late because we just finished our 10,000 mile road trip a few short days ago. Our journeys over the past few months took us to 22 states, averaging about 200 miles a day and many happy reunions along the way. Needless to say, we were happy to unload our car after pulling into the driveway of Emily's parents' house.

It was a pleasure to have spent time with Tyler's family throughout November including, a big family feast for Thanksgiving. For the first time we had all 10 nieces and nephews including 2 we held for the first time which we were thankful. To capture the special occasion we gathered for a family photo which we will cherish for the years to come and proudly display in our PNG home. Between the chaos, Tyler spent much of his time and talent helping his parents with their 25x20 room addition to their house. Everything from putting in windows, installing vinyl siding, hanging drywall, and mudding the drywall joints. We know this was a blessing to them as well as special time for Tyler and his father as they labored together. Emily was able to accomplish her goal of running a marathon on November 14 in Columbia City, IN.

We shared at two supporting churches as well as one campus ministry where Tyler attended during university. It is always a special time to share what God is doing in PNG and how we can encourage others to pray for the Bible-less groups. Having that common thread around the world is what truly unites us as Kingdom workers for Christ no matter where we live.

We concluded the month by saying good-byes to Tyler's family before hitting the long road back to Montana. We stretched the journey back by stopping and staying with friends and family. One particular moment was to visit Mt Rushmore between our stops in Scottsbluff, NE and Billings, MT.

Our time in the States concludes on December 27. We have thoroughly enjoyed the past few months of re connecting with many friends and family, as well as meeting so many new faces. It has been a blessing to change our scenery for a few months and take a breath before diving back into life as we know it in Papua New Guinea. Thank you for being a part of our ministry and for all the encouragement you have given us while we are here with you or across the ocean.

Pray for our last few weeks in the U.S., as we say our see you later's and pack our belongings away. Pray for our families as they say their see you later's to us as well and count the cost of sending us. Pray for spiritual and physical protection for the Mborena Kam recording team and their families as they work this month. Continue praying specifically for Steven and Dulcy as they continue to seek treatment for Dulcy's mouth cancer. Pray for our physical, mental and spiritual health. Pray for safety and protection of Julie, who is house sitting for us while we are away. Finally, pray for safe travels back to Papua New Guinea.

Together in Christ,

Tyler and Emily Hewitt
